A readers' theater group has begun practicing in preparation for "Read Across America" day on March 2. The volunteer performers practice every day after school. The Dr. Seuss books which are the foundation for this year's script are "I Can Lick 30 Tigers Today" and Thidwick, the Big-Hearted Moose.

Preliminary planning is underway for the seniors' end-of-year events including their "senior service day," potential class trip, class picnic, and last-day activities. Their class motto is "A journey begins not with the first step, but a desire to go where you have never gone." Their class flower is the white calla lily, and their colors are light blue and white.

6. From Mrs. Fredrickson: Congratulations to Khara Peters (6th grade) for sharing her talents with our community, singing the national anthem at the Thursday, January 18 Wrestling Duel. Great job, Khara!

7. From Mr. Stork: “Boys Basketball Team - Conference Champions
Girls Basketball Team - Conference Champions”

Spring Sports start dates:

Softball - March 12

Track - March 12

Baseball - March 19 (new this year, teams can have conditioning practice start on March 12. This is to allow teams to throw and catch only. The thought is with the new pitching rules that this will help build arm strength)

Golf - March 19

GBB will be playing Friday night, February 16, 2018 for an outright championship as well.

See BBB conference championship picture below. I will share a gopher conference champion photo of the GBB when I obtain one.
